SUBJECT: RESIDENT VISITATION

~~F. Residents. Offenders incarcerated or confined in DCC residential centers.~~

~~G. Tobacco Products. Any smoking or smokeless tobacco product.~~

~~H. Communication Devices. Any cellular telephone, pager or other electronic device which might allow a resident to establish unsupervised and unauthorized contact with individuals outside of the facility.~~

~~V. GUIDELINES.~~

A. General Information. Approved visitors are welcome. To support the ACC program objectives ~~of DCC programming~~, residents will be allowed to receive visitors, following appropriate applicant screening to assure safety and security of employees and residents. The DCC ACC can limit visitation in accordance with pursuant to applicable law and for such reasons as programming and scheduling requirements, resident behavior, and scheduling requirements. ~~security concerns.~~

People who wish to visit residents must apply using Form 1, ACenter Visitation "Application ~~@~~ to Visit a Resident." For the safety of residents, staff, and visitors, certain precautions are necessary including conducting a background check of people who apply to visit residents. Applicants will be screened giving weight to the potential for therapeutic benefit of their visit ~~against likely harm or bad influence which may result.~~ Investigations will consist of an ACIC/NCIC criminal history check, assessment of information provided on the Visitor Application to Visit a Resident Form, and any information obtained from Parole/Probation Officers, ~~residents~~, or other reliable sources. Staff also use ~~metal/drug~~ detection equipment and conduct pat searches when appropriate. Violators of rules are subject to prosecution pursuant to Arkansas Code Annotated ~~law section~~ 5-54-119. Visitors must follow rules to ensure safety, security, and to set the example for residents who are learning to follow rules. Although precautions are taken to assure safety and security, visitors must understand there are risks. ~~Visitors are welcome.~~

~~B. Identification. Upon entrance of a DCC residential center, all visitors will be required~~

~~C. Treatment of Others. Staff, residents, and visitors must respect other=s civil rights and must not engage in retaliatory acts against anyone who claims or reports harassment.~~

~~D. Searches.~~

~~B. Resident's Responsibility. The resident must provide the "Application to Visit a Resident" form to each person he/she wants to visit.~~

~~C. Searches. Visitors are subject to search and may be asked to wait in the area for permission to enter. They are free to leave at any time, unless they are suspected of trying to introduce contraband or committing any other felony on ACC grounds. In these situations, they may be detained until law enforcement arrives to take them into custody." Any personal or State property is subject to reasonable search when on State property or in the possession of someone on State property. Visitors may be pat searched by an authorized person of the same gender. Visitors who refuse to be searched are subject to having their visitation ended, being barred from entering or remaining on DCC property, and having visitation privileges revoked. Circumstances that may lead to search include the following: a special security search of people entering, leaving, or currently on DCC premises; before, during, or immediately following a visit with a resident; when there is Areasonable suspicion@ of possession of contraband (see description on Form 1); if a major crime/critical incident has occurred in which contraband or evidence is involved; and in conjunction with the drug testing process. Visitors may be asked to wait in the area for permission to enter; however, they may not be detained and are free to leave at any time they choose. Visitors must sign out upon leaving ACC property, and having visitation privileges revoked.~~
