

SUMMARY

- This rule identifies eligible activities through which teachers and administrators can earn the required professional development hours.
- The rule increases the required professional development hours by 30 hours making a total of 60 hours each year.
- The rule requires all eligible activities to be approved by the Department of Education or that providers sign an assurance that activities are reviewed and deemed to meet the requirement of the rule.
- The rule establishes policy for designated teachers to meet a modified standard.