Casino Gaming Rule 3.45 Amendment Summary

This proposed amendment allows employees to carry casino issued identification badges that do not contain their full name, for their own security on and off-premises.

Casino Gaming Rule 3.45 Mark Up

3.45 Carrying of Licenses and Credentials

(a) All employee licenses, or an approved Casino Licensee's identification badge, must be worn and displayed in a visible and conspicuous manner at all times when on the premises of the casino license holder.

(b) No Casino Licensee shall permit a person to work in its licensed premises without said person carrying his/her Employee License, or a Casino Licensee's identification badge, as provided in paragraph (a) above.

(c) An employee that wears a Casino Licensee's identification badge visibly in lieu of an employee license shall keep the license on their person at all times while on the licensed premises.
