

Summary of Hyperalimentation Update 75

The changes in the Hyperalimentation manual include: (1) the addition of rules for enrollment as a Medicaid provider, (2) the addition of rules for enrollment as a limited services provider in a non-bordering state, (3) A list of the medical conditions that are approved for treatment for hyperalimentation services, and (4) conditions, both medical and procedural, that require prior approval before hyperalimentation services can be provided.