

SUMMARY

This amendment provides that a physician who utilizes laser equipment may delegate certain minor tasks to trained personnel and further sets out the level of supervision and interaction between the physician, the patient, and the trained personnel.