

Summary of Proposed Amendment to the Arkansas Ethics Commission's Rules on Political Committees

The Ethics Commission is revising the Rules on Political Committees to bring them in conformity with Acts 240, 341, 1039, and 1058 of 2019. Those changes are summarized below.

- Act 240, concerning quarterly reports filed by county political party committees, replaced the word “filing” period with “reporting” period, to provide clarity.
- Act 341 increased the fine range from $50-$2,000 per violation to $50-$3,500 per violation.
- Act 1039 allows PACs to register via paper with the requirement that PACs who seek to become paper filers instead of electronic filers must submit an affidavit that they do not have access to technology and that it would constitute a substantial hardship to file electronically. (The affidavit was already required of candidates to paper file.)
- Act 1039 added the requirement that PACs which seek to become paper filers instead of electronic filers must submit an affidavit that they do not have access to the necessary technology and that it would constitute a substantial hardship to file electronically. (The affidavit was already required of candidates to paper file.)
- Act 1039 addressed paper registration and reporting by Political Action Committees and Independent Expenditure Committees and requires the affidavit. It likewise requires the Secretary of State to notify the filers in writing if their filing was rejected within five (5) days, telling them the reason it was rejected.
- Act 1039 also provided that the AEC shall approve the forms and instructions used by the Secretary of State under this section to ensure that all required information is requested. Reports shall be filed on the forms furnished by the Secretary of State, except that computer-generated contribution and expenditure reports shall be accepted by the Secretary of State and the Arkansas Ethics Commission provided that all of the requisite elements are included. It also adds the traditional timely filing elements of ten (10) days follow-up to fax, and that a pre-election report must be received by the due date. Furthermore, it makes it clear that the Secretary of State shall post the filings on its website.
- Act 1058 extended the types of persons who must include disclaimer language on printed campaign materials, so that printed campaign materials produced by PACs and IECs must also contain the phrase “paid for by” followed by who paid for it.
