Memorandum regarding Amendment to Natural Resources Commission's Title X Rules

Purpose

This memorandum analyzes a proposed amendment to the Arkansas Natural Resources Commission's (Commission) existing rules implementing the Title X Rules Governing the Arkansas Water Resource Agricultural Cost-Share Program (Cost-Share Program).

Background

The Cost-Share Program was established in 1994 and is regulated under the Commission's Title X rules. The Cost-Share Program is funded by the United States Environmental Protection Agency Section 319(h) Nonpoint Source Pollution Grant. Arkansas is typically awarded $3.3 million annually to administer the Arkansas Nonpoint Source Pollution Program.

The Department's Natural Resources Division (NRD) does not set aside any 319(h) funds directly for the Cost-Share Program but administers the program by providing grant awards to partners to implement conservation practices, education and outreach, or water quality monitoring. Grant awards are selected through ranking of workplan proposals. The proposals that rank highest are those that work to implement conservation practices in designated nonpoint priority watersheds or watersheds with EPA accepted Nine Element Watershed Plans.

On August 11, 2022, the Commission voted to proceed with adoption of the proposed amendments to Title X to increase the incentives available under the Cost-Share Program to increase Program participation.

Key Points

- The Cost-Share Program has suffered from low participation by conservation districts, with only 15% of districts participating in the Program over the last ten years
- The proposed amendment includes increasing the landowner project cap from $2,500 or $7,500 per three-year cycle to $5,000 annually or $15,000 per three-cycle.
- The proposed amendment also revises the cost-share percentage to align with current federal nonpoint source pollution program requirements of 60% federal funds and 40% non-federal sponsor funds.

Discussion

Under Title X, the Commission delegates the authority for administration of the Cost-Share Program to conservation districts, including identifying eligible landowners, developing farm plans for conservation practices, and ensuring implementation aligns with NRCS national conservation practice standards. Over the last ten years, NRD has only had 11 of 75 (15%) conservation districts participate in funding $1,670,009 worth of conservation practices. The Cost-Share Program has also been used to purchase equipment for Conservation Districts to rent to landowners to help subsidize their local budgets and staffing.

The proposed amendment includes increasing the landowner project cap from $2,500 or $7,500 per three-year cycle to $5,000 annually or $15,000 per three-cycle. Staff also proposed revising the cost-share percentage to align with current federal nonpoint source pollution program requirements of 60% federal funds and 40% non-federal sponsor funds. The current rule requires a 60% non-federal sponsor to implement cost-share projects.

Finally, due to the Bureau of Legislative Research's ongoing Code of Arkansas Rules Project, the proposed amendment also contains many stylistic changes that are non-substantive to bring the rule into compliance with the new style guide for rules.

Legal Notice

Arkansas Natural Resources Commission

The Arkansas Natural Resources Commission is proposing amendments to its Title 10 Rules Governing the Arkansas Water Resource Agricultural Cost-Share Program and its Title 13 Rules Governing the Tax Credit Program for the Creation, Restoration, and Conservation of Private Wetland and Riparian Zones

The purpose of the proposed rule amendments to Title 10 is increase the landowner project cap from $2,500 or $7,500 per three-year cycle to $5,000 annually or $15,000 per three-cycle and revise the cost-share percentage to align with current federal nonpoint source pollution program requirements of 60% federal funds and 40% non-federal sponsor funds. The purpose of the proposed rule amendments to Title 13 is to clarify that for a project to qualify for a tax credit under the rule, the project must include activities that reduce sediment inputs.
