Rule 3.1

(b) As used in these Rules, “accreditation” refers to the process of quality control of the education process.

The applicant’s degree must have been granted by a four-year degree-granting college or university that is accredited by one or more recognized accrediting agencies (including their predecessor or successor agencies). The Board recognizes the following six (6) accrediting agencies:

Middle States Commission on Higher Education;
New England Commission of Higher Education ;
Higher Learning Commission;
Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities; Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges; and the WASC Senior College and University Commission.

Colleges and Universities accredited by these associations are listed on the Council of Higher Education Accreditation’s website
